Mr. O. E. Ray Has Been Missing Since Last Monday; Family Uneasy.

MONEY SENT TO SUFFERERS

Charitable People Respond to San Francisco's Call—Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, 1102 Hull Street.
Mr. O. E. Ray, a well-known man of Manchester, has been missing from his home since last Monday, and his relatives and friends are greatly alarmed concerning his whereabouts.

Mr. Ray had recently made arrangements with Mr. Lee Latham to conduct a restaurant counter in Mr. Latham's saloon at Tenth and Hull Streets. He had advertised throughout the city that he would open the place on Thursday, and had purchased a stock in trade.

Monday morning he walked out of the place, telling Mr. Latham that he would return in ten or fifteen minutes. Since that time he has been missing. No trace of him was found by his relatives, who have kept up a diligent search.

To San Francisco.

The donation from Manchester citizens to the sufferers in San Francisco was sent yesterday morning to Mayor Schmitz of the stricken city. Three hundred and twenty-nine dollars was the amount raised in ten or fifteen minutes. Since that time he has been missing. No trace of him was found by his relatives, who have kept up a diligent search.

The undersigned citizens of the city of Manchester, Va., feeling a profound sympathy for our fellow-countrymen in the stricken city of San Francisco, and wishing to express our sympathy in a more substantial way than mere words, hereby give the amounts opposite our respective names to help relieve them in their dire distress and great need. Augusting Royall, $10; William J. Clifton, $5; A. L. Adams, $10; H. C. Beattie, $5; Seldon Bates, $1; H. K. Reid, $1; C. O. Cowardin, $1; H. W. Archer, $1; R. C. Broadus, $1; W. J. Carter, $5; Clarence Fortune, $1; E. Stump, $1; Fred Hageneyer, $1; B. A. Nunnally, $1; L. W. Cheatham, $1; D. L. Toney, $1; Joseph Oppelman, $1; John Onesty, $2; P. Beam, 50 cents; Samuel Myer, $1; J. B. Moore, $1; C. L. Pettit, $1; R. P. Vaden, $5; D. D. Harts, 50 cents; J. W. Cleary, $5; A. S. Furron, $1; Lawrence Pool, $1; W. W. Friend, $5; Jacob Levy, $1; M. B. Staples, $5; H. L. Smith, $1; M. J. Johnson, $5; Fred S. Wright, $1; W. C. Rice, $1; H. M. Brown, $1; C. T. Jones, $1; H. T. Schwartz, $2.50; R. A. Gibbs, $1; J. S. Fowlkes, $1; Moore and Burke, $1; E. L. Kidd, 1.50; W. P. Varner, $1; C. H. Myers, $1; J. E. Redford, $2.50; J. G. Saunders, $1; R. M. Robertson, $1.

Clear Water Committee.

The Clear Water Committee of the Council will meet in special session Monday night. Arrangements will be made for the advertisement of bids for the erection of a filtering plant for the city. The plan, it is believed, will cost about $15,000, and will furnish clear water to every citizen of Manchester.

In the Churches.

There will be revival services in Bainbridge Street Baptist Church to-day, both morning and evening. Rev. W. C. Taylor will arrive in the city to-morrow and will preach every night during the week. At the evening service in Cowardin Avenue Christian Church, the pastor, Rev. C. O. Woodward, will preach from the text, "Joseph in Prison, or the Use of Adversity."

Persons and Briefs.

Mr. Richard Palmer, an employee of the Southern Shops, was caught between the bumpers of a freight train yesterday morning and badly mangled. He was at once treated by Dr. Merchant and made comfortable.

Friends of Mr. Victor Hugue have heard from him since he has been in Colorado. Mr. Hugue, who is very well known in Manchester, writes that he is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Mattie L. Garber, of No. 224 East Thirteenth Street, is much improved in health.

The City Assembly will meet Monday night in special session. The question of immediately building a pest-house will be discussed.

The funeral of Mrs. Mildred D. Parker, who died Thursday, took place from Central Methodist Church yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

Mrs. Roak, wife of Motorman Roak, of the Manchester car line, who was badly burned a few days ago, is recovering slowly at the Virginia Hospital.

The case of Alex. Anderson, the negro who shot Topsy Jones, was again continued in the Police Court yesterday morning on account of the illness of Jones.

Revenge.
Mrs. Duggan—I don't like the portrait and will not pay for it.
Artist—if you don't pay me, I'll exhibit it in a jeweler's window on the main street.
